

Did You Ever Lose an Argument?

Andy Fite

Relaxed folksy swing D G

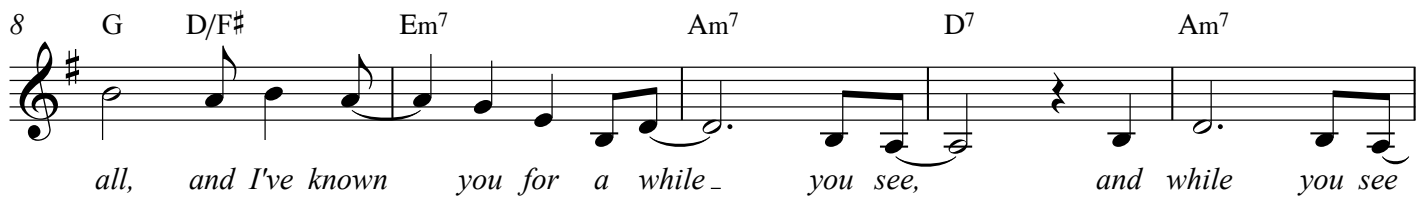

Did you ev-er lose an ar - gu - ment? Have you ev-er once been wrong?

5 C(add9) D

I don't be-lieve that I can name a sin-gle time you took the blame I mean for any-thing at all, and I've known you for a while - you see, and while you see

8 G D/F# Em7 Am7 D7 Am7

13 D7 Am7 D7

your - self - as wise - and good, and smart-er than the rest of us,

16 Cmaj7 G

I can't help won - der if it's true. - Have you ev - er felt at all un - sure when may - be some - one dis - a greed? Cause if you have I could - n't tell, not from the way you scream and yell and from the names you call 'em, - please!

20 D G

24 C(add9) D Bm7

2
27 Cmaj9 Cm6 Cm6

— Don't you think you'd learn a thing or two that might

30 G/B Bb° Am7

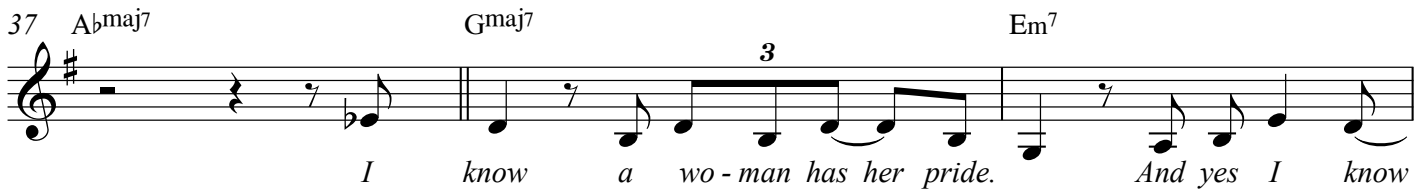

be use-ful to know if once in a while you

33 F7 Bbmaj7 Abmaj7 Bbmaj7

let your-self lose, and look at the thing through their eyes?

37 Abmaj7 Gmaj7 Em7

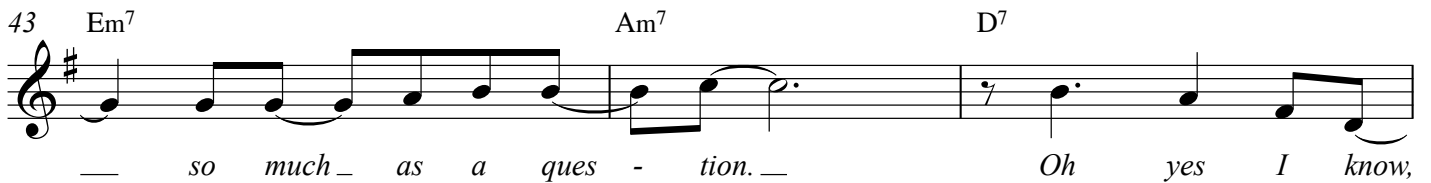

I know a wo-man has her pride. And yes I know

40 Am7 D7 Bm7

the feel-ing deep in-side that says "I know!" and ne-ver can a-bide

43 Em7 Am7 D7

so much as a ques-tion. Oh yes I know,

46 Gmaj7 Em7 Am7

but how old are you now? And don't you know not eve-ry-one will

49 B^7 Em^7 Eb^7 Dm^7 G^7

bow be - fore - your oh, so con - fi - dent as - ser - tions and o - pin ions - and your

52 C^{maj7} F^7 G^6

cold dis - dain for me? _____

56 (Break) D G

Did you ev - er lose an ar - gu - ment? Have you ev - er once been wrong?

60 $C^{(add9)}$ D

If ev - en once you'd said to me "Let's just a - gree to dis - a - gree" I would - n't need to sing a song like this to - day. — But I'll tell you now. I would - n't mind sing - ing to

63 G/B $C^{(add9)}$ Cm^6

67 G/B Bbm^6 Am^7

some - bo - dy nic - er than you've been late - ly so — I'm gon - na

70 Bm^7 E^7 Am^7 D^7 G^6

go and see if I can find some - one who does - n't hate — me.