

Song of the Solstice

Very slowly and freely

Andy Fite

C Am Fmaj7 G7
Sum-mer-time, sum-mer-time, sum-mer-time's my fav-orite time of

5 C Bb6 A7 Dm7
year, but it's here no more, it's ov-er now. The

9 G7 G#o Am7 F6
sul-try nights, the laz-y days, the fun you had, it's gone! There is no

13 Dm7 G11 G7 C Bb6 A7 Dm7
sum-mer now, and there won't be for a while. No there

19 G7 Dm7 G7 Fmaj7 C
won't be an-oth-er sum-mer-time for a while.

23 Gm7 C7 Fmaj7 Bb6 Am7 Ab°
And when the aut-umn breeze is blow-ing, and the col-ors on the trees are glow-ing,

27 Gm7 C7 Fmaj7
that's o-kay, I like it pret-ty well. But

31 Am7 D7 Gmaj7 Em7
aut-umn too has had its fling, and now it's gone, and not till spring will you

2

35 Am⁷ D⁷ Dm⁷ G⁷

be out- doors, _____ un - less you're forced to be.

39 C Am Fmaj⁷ G⁷

Sum-mer- time_ will come a- gain, but don't we know, from now till then, we'll

43 C B^b6 A⁷(sus4) A⁷

have our share of end - less fro - zen nights. Ev - en

47 Dm⁷ D[#]o Em⁷ A⁷

cold - er still I sup - pose it will be get - ting, _____ but the sun is

51 Dm⁷ E⁷(b9) Fmaj⁷ F^m(maj7)

set - ting just a min - ute lat - er now, _____ and the

55 Em⁷ E^bm⁷ A^b7 Dm⁷ A⁷

dark - ness that's been clos - ing in up - on us since sum - mer - time is

59 D⁷ Dm⁷ G⁷ Fmaj⁷ C

turn - ing now, _____ and from here it's get - ting light - er.