I called you on the phone. Well, where else was I gon-na call you? I thought you were a-lone, but a las! So I hung up, and rung up this girl I used to know, and oh, what a night it was. Or at least that's what she told me in the mor ning...

Refrain, med. latin

We drank a coup-le of mar-ga-ri-tas and we walked out in the night, and it all worked out fine. If I asked it was mine, she wan-ted me so, and she is pret-ty nice. So

23 Am⁷(b5) D7(b9) Gmaj7 G7 no, she did-n't have to ask me twice! We

27 Cmaj7 F7 Bbmaj7 Eb7

went up to her room, she showed me where she sleeps, she showed me what she sleeps in, and then she could-n't sleep. We rolled a-round all night, and held each other tight, but try as I did and real-ly I tried, I could not open my eyes up.

43 Bbmaj7 Abmaj7 Gmaj7 G6 Cmaj7

We broke a coup-le of lamps I think and spilled some water on the floor, then we did it a-gain. And I did-n't know when

51 F7 Bbmaj7 Am7(b5) D7 F7 E7

we'd ev-er get tired, kind-a seemed like we would just go on for-ev-er, we two, but I was think-ing of you.

We broke a rec-ord or two that night and then_ we slept all af - ter noon, then we did_ it some more. And I am_ pret - ty sure I've nev - er en - joyed real - ly an - y - thing as much as I_ did that! But

87 Am7 D7 Dm7 G7 Cmaj7 Cm6 still in my mind it was you, which is stu - pid and mean, in a way, to her,_ but what can you do? I real - ly am that dumb, or craz - y, but in spite of it all_ I'm so glad you were bus - y that night!
